

Martin Sandbu, journalist at the Financial Times, will act as moderator for the three panels.

8h45-8h50 Introduction by Odile Renaud-Basso, General Director of the Treasury.

8h50- 9h00 Opening remarks by Michel Sapin, Minister of Economy and Finances.

9h00-10h10 1st panel discussion: Weighing the gains from trade against rising inequalities: which diagnosis of trade openness?

Speakers

Joseph Stiglitz, Columbia University, Nobel Prize in Economics

Roberto Azevêdo, Director General of the WTO

Marie-Ange Debon, Group Senior Executive and Vice President International Division CEO of SUEZ

Branko Milanovic, City University of New York

Philippe Jahshan, President of the NGO Coordination Sud

Paul Romer, Chief Economist of the World Bank Group

10h10-11h10 2nd panel discussion: International trade negotiations: new objectives, new ways and means?

Speakers

Jean Luc Demarty, Director-General for Trade of the European Commission

Sébastien Jean, Director General of the CEPII

Yann Delabrière, Chairman of Faurecia

Pervenche Berès, Member of the European Parliament

Guntram Wolff, Director of the think-tank Bruegel

11h10-11h30 Break

11h30-12h30 3rd panel discussion: Which reforms for the governance of globalization and international trade?

Speakers

Philippe Aghion, Professor at the Collège de France

Juan Manuel Gómez-Robledo, Ambassador of Mexico in France

Martin Kaufman, Assistant Director Strategy, Policy and Review Department, IMF

Liina Carr, Confederal Secretary at ETUC

Henrik Bourgeois, VP European Affairs and General Counsel Europe, General Electric Europe

Philippe Martin, Professor of Economics at Science Po Paris

12h30-12h45 Closing Remarks by Mr. Ángel Gurría, Secretary-General of the OECD